Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Isaac Anthony Bueno, age 38, of Modesto, was convicted on March 6, 2013 of armed robbery following a jury trial. Bueno, who is a convicted felon, also pled no contest to illegally possessing a gun the morning of the robbery and was found to have served a prior prison term. Deputy District Attorney Merrill Hoult prosecuted the case for the People.

On April 13, 2012 at approximately 2:08 a.m., Bueno entered the Quik Stop located at 1500 Crows Landing Road in Modesto. He was armed with a loaded revolver. Bueno threatened a store clerk with the gun and demanded money. Bueno ran out of the store with the money. The entire incident was captured on video. A Stanislaus County Sheriff's deputy located Bueno running away from the store just minutes after the robbery. Bueno was found to be in possession of the stolen money and a gun.

Judge John Freeland scheduled a sentencing hearing for March 14, 2013. Bueno will also be sentenced for a violation of felony probation in a separate case. Bueno is facing a maximum term of sixteen years, eight months in state prison for both cases.
